

Over the next few years, we are determined to use our full potential not only to enhance our position as one of the most influential research centers on the health system in Iran, but also as a pioneering center for basic research in parasitic and fungal diseases. And infectious, promote the scientific status of the field at the regional and global level.

Basic sciences in Infectious Diseases Research Center, as the first basic research center on infectious diseases in the province, to analyze and analyze the current status, priority and health needs of the community, as well as to explore therapeutic strategies to meet the community health needs of parasitic and fungal diseases. Alongside conducting fundamental research to produce science at the university.